

CARCOOP AND MAHERNINNIS BASKETBALL TEAM UP TO DRIVE OPPORTUNITY ON AND OFF THE COURT

In a move that's nothing but net, MaherNinnis Basketball is proud to announce a dynamic new partnership with CarCoop, Australia's Rent–Drive–Buy specialists. Together, they're aiming to fast-break barriers – on the court and on the road.

Founded by basketball legends and best mates Brett Maher and Scott Ninnis, MaherNinnis Basketball is a powerhouse in South Australia, known for its commitment to high standards and a dedication to the growth of the game and the next generation of athletes. With a shared commitment to opportunity and community, this partnership with CarCoop is set to be a game-changer.

"We're incredibly proud to partner with MaherNinnis Basketball — an organisation that truly champions the growth of the game and the development of young athletes," said Nigel Sellars, CEO of CarCoop Pty Ltd.

"This collaboration reflects our shared values of opportunity, progress, and community. Whether it's helping people get behind the wheel or supporting players on the court, we're committed to driving positive change together."

Brett Maher echoed the excitement, saying, "We're super excited to be partnering with such a great company in CarCoop. This allows us to drive basketball further in SA and also make people aware of some great options in the rent–drive–buy car market."

CarCoop specialises in second chances, offering flexible rent-to-own car solutions for Australians who are currently credit-challenged. With no credit checks, low deposits, and inclusive packages covering insurance, rego, servicing, and roadside assistance, CarCoop makes it easy to hit the road with confidence.

As MaherNinnis Basketball continues to build skills, confidence, and character in young athletes, CarCoop will be right there courtside – driving support through programs, events, and grassroots development initiatives.

This partnership is all about giving people the tools to take the next step forward—like the perfect assist that sets up a slam dunk.
